

O The World, Just See!

O the world, just see!
We are homeless since long,
Now we have taken along our own flag,
Foundations of these palaces
And high mansions, contain our blood,
Those who were the guests yesterday,
Now are the owners,
The kings and the religious heads,
All are enemies,
How long we shall tolerate the tyrants.

O the world, just see!
We are homeless since long,
Now we have taken along our own flag,
Don't be so innocent,
You know all, who has besieged Palestine.
O! The world, openly shout,
'Butchers, robbers, leave the land,
We shall fight till we breathe'.

O the world, just see!
